Send Hunger Packing

10/04/2019 — Our luncheon on Friday was a beehive of activity. Melissa Hager of Send Hunger Packing (SHuP) was in attendance. Melissa spoke for a few minutes about the magnitude of the food insecurity problem in New Jersey. One in 4 children in NJ are considered to be food insecure.

The purpose of our project with Melissa and SHuP was to pack 100 weekend food packs for the students in need in the WW-P school district. This project is in line with our club focus of ending hunger in Central New Jersey. Our members in attendance as well as our guests pitched in to pack and box all these bags of food and send them to help needy children.

Dr. Sharon Weiner

10/11/2019 - This week our lunch speaker was Dr. Sharon Weiner, who is an Ambassadorial Scholar and is a Visiting Professor at Princeton University.

Dr. Weiner is an expert on nuclear weapons, the Nonproliferation Treaty and the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons. She also worked at the OMB under both the Obama and Trump administrations.

Dr. Weiner shared her insights on the issues surrounding the United States past and present nuclear policies and the potential impact on decisions being made at the present time. A very interesting and somewhat terrifying presentation.

Drs. Lehka and Janak Tull

10/18/2019 - We welcomed as our lunch speakers on Friday Dr. Lekha Tull and her son, Dr. Janak Tull. They have a dental practice in Princeton and gave us some insights into recent advancements in dentistry, particularly with new materials and techniques in placing crowns.

With precise laser measurements they no longer have to take physical impressions. These new measurements also guide a very precise process where the replacement crown can be fabricated in a matter of minutes on-site. The benefits to their patients is a much quicker, less painful and more accurate process to repair broken teeth.
